Important Instructions:

i) Any students who have submitted applications through the ERP portal for the MO 2026 G.P. Birla Scholarship before the issuance of this notification shall stand cancelled. Such students are required to submit fresh applications between 24.11.2026 and 04.12.2026 in accordance with the instructions contained in this notification.

ii) Students must carefully read the Scholarship Guidelines, including the eligibility criteria, terms and conditions, and selection procedures, before submitting their applications.

iii) It is mandatory for all applicants to update all their personal/parents/guardian details in the ERP portal before proceeding with the scholarship application. Students who fail to update the required information will not be permitted by the system to complete the application process.

iv) Students may apply for more than one scholarship category, provided they fulfil the respective eligibility criteria prescribed in the Scholarship Guidelines. However, a student shall be considered for only one scholarship category, based on the applicable eligibility criteria. Notwithstanding the above, students securing the top position in their respective semester/branch shall be eligible for the Prize for Programme Topper, in accordance with the prescribed guidelines.

v) Students applying for more than one category are required to submit separate application through ERP portal and upload the requisite document as mentioned in Point No. ix

vi) Students must ensure that all supporting documents, including Grade Cards, Income Certificates, EWS Certificates and Caste/Category Certificates, are scanned from the original documents in PDF only. All uploaded documents must be clear, legible and readable. Illegible, incomplete or unreadable documents may result in the cancellation of the application.

vii) Students applying for the scholarship are required to download the prescribed Application Form & Undertaking Form from the ERP portal, fill in the information, and upload the completed documents, along with category-wise applicable supporting documents [as mentioned in Point No. ix] in a single PDF file.

viii) Submission of the category-specific documents listed below is mandatory for consideration of scholarship applications. Applicants must compile all applicable documents into a single PDF file and upload the same to the designated section of the ERP portal. Failure to submit any mandatory document shall result in the cancellation of the application.
