Rules & Regulation of Sports Complex

- Only BIT Mesra students, staff and faculty possessing a valid BIT Mesra identity card are allowed.
- Entry of kids (below the age of 14 years) is prohibited inside the sports complex in view of their safety and security and to avoid any possible injury. However, as a special case, kids may be permitted along with their parents provided they take all necessary precautions and undertake the responsibility of their kids inside the sports complex.
- Priority for use of the sports complex would be first for BIT, Mesra students followed by institute employees and their wards residing in the campus and thereafter by employees and their wards residing outside the campus.
- Further the employees and wards are not allowed to use the sports complex for spending time in a casual manner inside it without participating in any activity as it is not a park or similar public place.
