B-QUIZ is one of the flagship events of E-SUMMIT organized annually by the Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) at BIT Mesra, Ranchi.

The quiz started off with pounce and bounce rule in effect with the level of questions varying from simple to mind twisting. Participants showed high competence and were ready to take risks for winning. But the quiz was not as straight forward as participants expected and with a bang came the buzzer rule in last 10 questions and the fun began to increase as did the struggle to win. At the end one team came out as the winner with top two teams winning the prize money worth ₹12 k in total.

The Event kicked off with the inauguration of the photo walls at 7pm by the Dean of Student affairs, following which the photo walls were opened to the public. Plentiful arrangements were made in the form of photo booths, props and lighting set up by the members of the photographic society.

The title sponsors of the event were Canon and Jharkhand tourism who set up interactive stalls for the visiting public.

Utkrisht Day 2 – This session was conducted at IC. It was the last day for submission of the entries for online events, Photo Story and Recensere. Day 2 witnessed a huge footfall for the photo gallery at IC. In the afternoon the club welcomed the president and the Vice President of the Photographic Society from the '98 batch who met the present executive body and members and graced the event by their presence.

Pukaar (Street Play)

Street plays have always had a long and entertaining history and a fine line between drama and political theatre. Magnifying the effects of theatre in direct action Ehsaas, the Dramatics Society of BIT Mesra presented a street play on the pressing matters of violent and non-violent protests.

A protest is a public expression of objection, disapproval or dissent towards an idea or action, typically a political or social one. Protests involve the cooperation of numerous people and their collective grievance and can take many different forms, from individual statements to mass demonstrations.

Through our street play, we demonstrated how the constitution of India defines a protest, how a systematic and peaceful nonviolent campaign may transcend into a violent one and the factors causing this change. We concluded with the distressing impact such situations can have on our society and how such incidents have made us question our progress and set false standards for the future.

The performance was scintillating and captivating; with every scene, hands lauded, mouths praised and the audience was left awestruck. The entire team fought tooth and nail to secure second place.

Mime

Mime is renowned for telling stories with motion; this kind of art demonstrates that you may convey your message to your intended audience without using dialogue as a bridge. Ehsaas, the Dramatics Society of BIT Mesra presented a Mime on juvenile drug abuse during the inauguration ceremony of BITOSAV.

We may see a person's numerous possible worlds and paths by delving deeply into his or her retrospection and prior experiences. Drugs are one of the expeditious ways to escape someone's trauma, but no one can presage where this avenue will go.

We portrayed a boy's narrative and the circumstances that led to him being forced into a destiny that he was not meant to have. We also showed how trauma may lead to drug abuse addiction, which would ultimately result in a disastrous situation.

The performance was flabbergasting, taking the judges and audience on a fervent rollercoaster, and it demonstrated that even simple movements can persuade a large audience to believe in a certain narrative.

Abhinay (Stage Play)

Stage play involves at its very core drama, dialogue and action. The thrill of seeing a play unfold is like reading a book or watching a movie; it provokes many emotions for the audience and leaves a lasting impression.

Ehsaas presented a play set in the pre - Independence Era, that gave a glimpse into the life of the commoners and their hardships. It portrayed the unjust and undignified behaviour meted out to a widow who lost her husband in the battle. Through her character we see a naive girl who is left alone to face the harsh realities of the world, because of a war that seems baseless to her. It took away her life for the freedom which will never be hers. The play touched everyone's heart as it narrated a beautiful tale of sacrifice, passion, courage and womanhood.

Overall, the event was a huge success allowing each participant a prospect to resonate with their talent and prove their ingenious self. It was an enriching experience for the entire team that they will always cherish and will allow them to move forward with the legacy of Ehsaas.

In order to consummate the participants' unquenchable quest for drama, Ehsaas, the dramatics society of Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, organized the Dramanite '22 at the CAT Hall on 6th September 2022.

The event commenced at 4:00 P.M. with the lighting of the lamp by the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. K. Sridhar Pattanaik, Ehsaas President Akanksha Singh, Joint President Pratichi, and members of the K-18 batch from Ehsaas: Aparna, Anvesha and Tanvi.

The first performance of the event was a stand-up comedy by Aryan Raj on his experiences with planes and school. He sent the audience into fits of laughter. Next to this performance was the mime performance themed on drug abuse. It presented the peregrination of a boy who culminates his life after being addicted to drugs. This act highlighted a very mundane social issue these days, depression, and shows us how people ravage their whole life by not accepting reality. The next performance was a potent mono act by Aastha Shah depicting the grief of a little girl at her grandmother's death. The act exhibited the burst of emotions at the death of a loved one.

This act endeavors to give us a very genuine message that we love because we can lose. If there was no threat of separation, no death to shake us to our core, we probably wouldn't love much at all. The next drama which took the heart of the audience was an adumbration comedy that showcased the struggle of an orthodox 90's reporter stuck in the world of Gen Z journalism.

This was followed by another stand-up performance on kids' cartoon shows by Swapna Neel Paul, which left the audience in giggles. This was followed by a screening of the humorous satirical short film Nerdception, which showcased the era of online education. Directed by Vibhor Choubey, the film was shot during the lockdown and featured sundry characters' reactions to the nerd virus.

The next performance was a play that highlighted a major quandary in the judiciary system faced by the common man and showed how the judicial system is highly dilatory, sumptuous, and beyond the reach of the common man. Ordinary citizens find it hard to seek redress, as litigation is extravagant and extra money is often required to oil the wheels of the system. The theme's main focus was on corruption and delay in the judiciary. The play opened in 1978 in Bihar, where a bridge had collapsed. The play depicted the poignant journey of a man, Anand Mishra, who spent 35 years of his life fighting a case for his dead wife and child, only to die without receiving justice.

Next after this was another mono act by Anurag Ghosh, depicting an unknown character. The act sheds light on the endeavors of suicide as well as the question of the fighting spirit of the unknown character. The final performance was a musical skit, titled Recap 2022. The skit showcased events of the current year including the Will Smith and Chris Rock incident; the Johnny Depp and Amber Heard case; the Ukraine-Russia conflict with the role of NATO and the UN; the online exams protest at BIT Mesra; the Yuzvendra Chahal, Dhanashree and Shreyas Iyer incident and India vs Pakistan Asia cup clash.

Overall, the event was a huge success allowing each participant a prospect to resonate with their talent and prove their ingenious self. The event was moderated by Aastha Sah and Rahul Srivastava. The event was sponsored by Absolute Barbecues and Sadda Adda Cafe and Lounge. The event ended at 6:40 P.M. with a vote of thanks by the president of Ehsaas Dramatics Society, Akansha Singh.

Aagaaz (Street Play)

Street plays have always had a long and entertaining history and a fine line between drama and political theatre. Magnifying the effects of theatre in direct action Ehsaas, the Dramatics Society of BIT Mesra presented a street play on the pressing matters of violent and non-violent protests.

A protest is a public expression of objection, disapproval or dissent towards an idea or action, typically a political or social one. Protests involve the cooperation of numerous people and their collective grievance and can take many different forms, from individual statements to mass demonstrations.

Through our street play, we demonstrated how the constitution of India defines a protest, how a systematic and peaceful nonviolent campaign may transcend into a violent one and the factors causing this change. We concluded with the distressing impact such situations can have on our society and how such incidents have made us question our progress and set false standards for the future.

The performance was scintillating and captivating; with every scene, hands lauded, mouths praised and the audience was left awestruck. The entire team fought tooth and nail to secure their place in the final round out of the 35 teams that participated in the event.

Mime

Mime is renowned for telling stories with motion; this kind of art demonstrates that you may convey your message to your intended audience without using dialogue as a bridge. Ehsaas, the Dramatics Society of BIT Mesra presented a Mime on juvenile drug abuse.

We may see a person's numerous possible worlds and paths by delving deeply into his or her retrospection and prior experiences. Drugs are one of the expeditious ways to escape someone's trauma, but no one can presage where this avenue will go.

We portrayed a boy's narrative and the circumstances that led to him being forced into a destiny that he was not meant to have. We also showed how trauma may lead to drug abuse addiction, which would ultimately result in a disastrous situation.

The performance was flabbergasting, taking the judges and audience on a fervent rollercoaster, and it demonstrated that even simple movements can persuade a large audience to believe in a certain narrative. We qualified for prelims, where 30 teams competed for the top six spots, and finished third in the finals.

Overall, the event was a huge success allowing each participant a prospect to resonate with their talent and prove their ingenious self. It was an enriching experience for the entire team that they will always cherish and will allow them to move forward with the legacy of Ehsaas.

Description: The Literary Society, BIT Mesra, conducted its annual literary extravaganza, "LitNight'23," fused with enthralling and spellbinding events from 13th to 15th January, 2023. The event was organized at the CAT Hall and was supported by the Jharkhand Writers Association, which was the title sponsor of the event. The Crepe Cafe and Sadda Adda cafe and lounge were delight and dining partners, respectively. To nurture a creative environment for literary aficionados, the Symposium was conducted on the first day of LitNight'23. The event forged the connections between poets and storytellers who exhibited their astounding set of creative skills and enamoured the audience. The event witnessed participation from the Jharkhand Writers Association—a platform which provides a stage to the upcoming writers and nurture them to grow and rise. The intriguing idea to make people laugh through entertainment and disport, Hindi & English Thespian Impressions, was orchestrated on the second day of LitNight'23 which encapsulated colossal success. The participants displayed a spectacular performance and flabbergasted the audience with their enigmatic impressions of some renowned characters from reel and real life. Web/Media Reports- ROSTRA event coverage by NAPS:

ROSTRA'23: Conglomeration of Literati

It is said that there is no surer foundation for a beautiful friendship than a mutual taste in literature. A benevolent heart always delights its visceral emotion through exchanging words and thoughts. It enables us to see through the lenses of others, becoming a looking glass into the world where words breathe life in tranquility. As we sip on its sweet nectar, sing, and celebrate, we unknowingly embark on a journey ushered by the creative imagination and the ability to think beyond the odds. Indeed, it stirs a flame that is true to life and soul. Candid yet surreal.

To kindle the flame of literature in the compassionate hearts of literati and venerate its quiddity, the Literary Society, BIT Mesra laid the podium for the zealous enthusiasts and literary lovers to demonstrate their innate talent under the canopy of ROSTRA'23. Being one of the most prominent literary fests of eastern India, it offered a metaphorical consortium to literary enthusiasts across the country to manifest their eloquence, proficiency, and finesse. RESEARCH PROJECTS

Decentralised Shop (BlockChain Technology):

A project regarding “Decentralised Shop” has been outlined by our researcher Deependu Jha (K20). As a result of this study, it was discovered that fake e-commerce websites often deduct money for online purchases but never deliver the product & with online purchases becoming so widespread and the boom in e-commerce, this being a rare occurrence is now becoming more common.

Blockchain technologies have been used to develop a model based on principles of smart contracts where a token named "Mudra" is generated & linked to your meta mask wallet and, upon purchase, the amount is deducted and is put into the smart contract, where the seller receives their portion of the payment on delivery. Preventing fraud on E-commerce websites further

Namastey! 🙏

➤ Hi, I'm Deependu Jha, a third-year ECE student at BIT Mesra, Ranchi. I made this decentralised shopping application (D-shop).

Problem it solves 🤔

➤ Many fake e-commerce apps take your money, but never deliver the products. So, a smart-contract has been created where I created a token called 'Mudra'. People will buy products using Mudra token, and when they purchase a product, balance is deducted from their balance but is not sent to the seller's account. Rather, balance is kept as it is in the smart-contract. Once the product is delivered, then only sellers receive their share of money. Hence, preventing any fraud.

Tech stacks used 🧑‍💻

- Frontend: Next.js, and Bootstrap.
- Backend: Express Js, and MongoDB.
- Smart-contract (Blockchain): Hardhat, Mocha & chai, Solidity, Infura, Ethers.js

Smart-Contract's Token 🪙

- Mudra
- Users can buy 1000 Mudras (MDR) for 1 Ether.
- Users can also cash in their Mudras (MDR) and get their ethers in the wallet.
- When a user purchases a product, mudras are deducted from his/her account, but they are not sent to the seller's account.
- Mudras will be sent to the seller's address only after the product is delivered.
- To receive the product, you need to generate your unique delivery key. Once delivery person verifies the delivery key, the product will be delivered to you.
- Note: Only you/buyer can check his/her delivery key. So, don't give it to anyone unknown.

Acknowledgment 🙏

- Thanks to 'Prof. Priyank Sir' for his guidance.

Crypto/Stock Prediction Algorithms:

A project regarding Crypto/Stock prediction algorithms was designed by Sanket Patel, during this study the forecasting of the bitcoin market was analyzed. The spread of machine learning methods was utilized, and a comprehensive set of potential market-predictive features was considered.

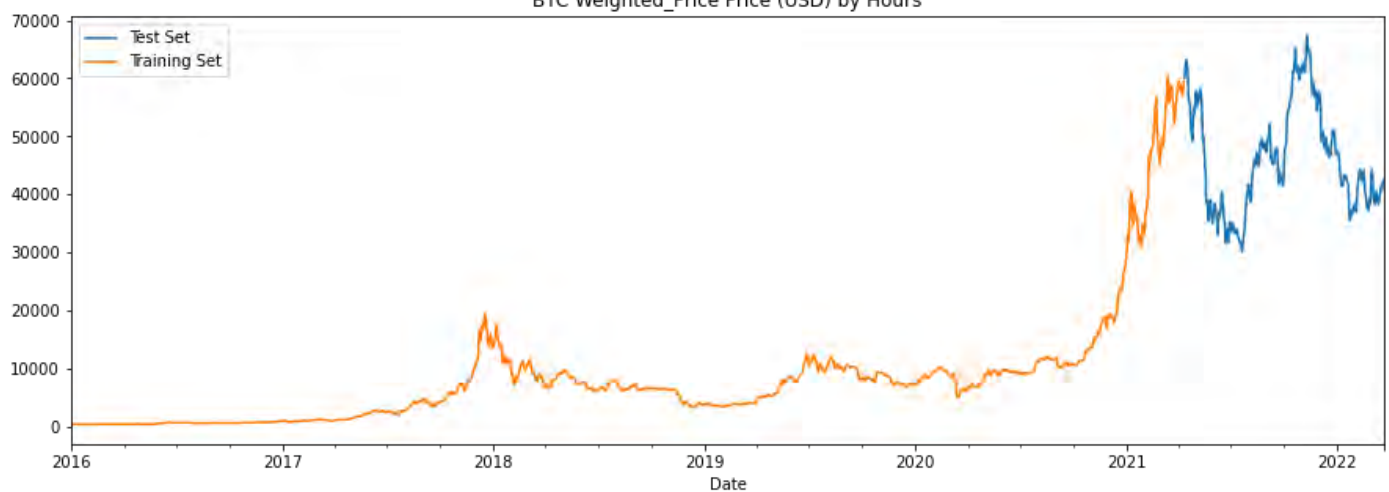

Bitcoin market's predictability over six years of overtime was also examined, and further, the spread of machine learning models was investigated. It was found that while models outperformed a random classifier, recurrent neural network and gradient boosting classifier were particularly well-suited for the prediction task.

Movie Recommendation System:

This project is being developed by one of our Researcher Aniket Shandilya, a basic recommendation system using Python and Pandas. It suggests items that are most similar to a particular item, in this case, movies. It suggests what movies/items are most similar to the user's movie choice. Movie recommendation system use a set of different filtration strategies and algorithms to help users find the most relevant films. The most popular categories of the ML algorithms used for movie recommendation include content-based filtering and collaborative filtering systems.
