Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

between

Delhi Technological University, Delhi, India

and

Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi

Delhi Technological University, Delhi, India and Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi wishing to establish relations between the two institutions, agree to cooperate with each other as follows.

Subject to mutual consent, the areas of cooperation will include any programme offered with either institution as thought desirable and feasible on either side and that both sides will contribute to the fostering and development of the cooperative relationship between the two universities. Cooperation shall be carried out through such activities as:

1. Exchange of students
2. Exchange of faculty and/or staff
3. Joint research activities and publications
4. Participation/organization of seminars and training program

The term of cooperation for each specific activity implemented under this MoU for Cooperation shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by both universities prior to the institution of that activity. Any MoUs entered into, as outlined above, will form appendices to this MoUs for Cooperation.

The two universities hereby agree on the following articles to establish the Exchange program.

I. STUDENT EXCHANGE

1. The aim of the exchange program is to provide students an opportunity to have experience of international cooperation and exchange, as well as to gain a better understanding of Delhi and Mesra through education.
2. The term of the study of exchange students participating in this program shall be one academic year, but may be extended with the consent of both universities.

3. The number of students exchanged under this MoU shall be no more than three students at each university. The total number of mutual exchange students will be about same from each university during the term of five years.
4. The host university has the right to decide acceptance of exchange students, by taking account of recommendation issued from the home university for exchange students based on their academic record.
5. The host university will waive application fees, entrance fees, and tuition fees of the exchange students. Transportation, accommodation, food, clothing and other personal costs including the medical insurance and medical care will be the personal responsibilities of the students themselves. However, the host university may charge an amount for providing laboratory, library, internet facilities etc. The amount will be intimated at the time of making an offer.
6. The host university shall reserve or make available accommodation on campus for exchange students or assist them in locating suitable housing off campus if they so desire.
7. The exchange student is treated as either the research students or specially registered student.
8. The exchange students will be subject to the student rules at the host university, while on exchange. Exchange students will be offered the same facilities as local students.
9. Exchange students will study or conduct researches which are pertinent to their field of study and are offered by the host university.
10. The acceptance of course work (lectures, seminars) taken at the host university and the measure of achievements attained there will be communicated to the home university.
11. Any Intellectual Property developed during the joint activity will be jointly owned by the two universities.

II. FACULTY/STAFF EXCHANGE

1. The two universities will actively seek to promote mutual faculty exchange for mutual agreed periods.
2. Faculty exchange may assume various forms, such as individual short-time and long-term visits of faculties, joint research and development projects.
3. Both universities will try to seek external funding sources to facilitate these exchanges.

4. Encouragement of the academic faculty to co-author publications, joint research activities and joint project possibilities is in subject to applicable copyright and / or other laws of each country, as well as rules and regulations of the perspective universities.
5. The host university will endeavour to, as much as possible, make available such facilities that will enable the faculty to obtain experience and training in its departments and institutes, including the use of its laboratories and libraries.
6. The two universities acknowledge that in the absence of an external funding agency, all expenses for travel, living and allied costs will be left to the discretion and the responsibility of the home university.
7. Any Intellectual Property developed during the joint activity will be jointly owned by the two universities.

III JOINT RESEARCH ACTIVITIES AND PUBLICATIONS

1. The two universities will actively participate in the joint research activities both public funded as well as private funded. The joint research includes the funded project as well as research consultancy.
2. During the joint research, both universities should have some financial share. One university will do one part of the research work and another university will do another part of the research.
3. Joint publication between faculty members of both universities are allowed.

IV PARTICIPATION/ORGANIZATION OF SEMINARS AND TRAINING PROGRAM

1. Faculties are allowed to organise/participate in the seminar (National conference, International conference), training program (short term training program, workshop)
2. The host university can waive the registration fee of the seminar and training program for 3-5 candidates.

V TERMS OF IMPLEMENTATION, RENEWAL, REVISIONS, CANCELLATIONS AND NOTICES

1. Details of the implementation of any particular exchange resulting from this MoU shall be negotiated between the two universities.
2. This MoU becomes effective on the day it is signed and remains valid for five years.

3. This MoU will be renewed after five years upon the consent in writing of both universities. Each university may cancel the MoU by notifying the other university of its intent to do so at least six months in advance of its expiration. Projects in progress at the time of termination will remain unaffected.
4. Any amendment or modification to the present text shall be submitted for review to the competent authorities and shall not be binding unless reduced to writing and signed by both the universities.

In witness whereof, the universities hereto have offered their signatures.
