7. Arithmetical errors: The arithmetical errors will be rectified as follows. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between the figures and words. The amount in words will prevail. If the supplier does not accept the correction of errors, its bid will be rejected.
8. Prices indicated on the price-bid should be mentioned in the following manner:

For Goods manufactured within India

- i) The price of the goods should be quoted Ex –works.
- ii) GST and other taxes etc. which will be payable on the goods if the contract is awarded. The details should be mentioned separately.
- iii) The charges for inland transportation, insurance and other local services required for delivering the goods at the desired destination as specified in the price bid.
- iv) The installation, commissioning and training charges including any incidental services, (if any) should be clearly mentioned.

For Imported Goods:

- i) The price of the goods, quoted on FCA (named place of delivery abroad) or FOB (named port of shipment), as specified in the price schedule form.
- ii) The charges for insurance and transportation of the goods to the port/place of destination.
- iii) The agency commission charges, (if any).
- iv) The installation, commissioning and training charges including any incidental services, (if any).
- v) The terms FOB, FCA, CIF, CIP etc. shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the current edition of the Incoterms published by the International Chambers of Commerce, Paris.
- vi) Delivery at Kolkata Airport/ Seaport only: As we do not have clearing agent in any other Airport, delivery is to be made only at Kolkata.

Technical Specifications

should have following specifications

Sl. No	Specifications:	Compliance (Yes/ No) along with the reference page no. of the bid.
1	Specifications for Universal Vibration Apparatus should have of the following minimum (Basic) specification (better & higher specification will be given preference): Universal Vibration Test set up should be accompanied with Data Acquisition System and analysis Instrumentation. The test setup should be capable of performing the experiments as described below: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Simple and Compound Pendulums. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Studies on different pendulums, their characteristics and behavior should be possible with simple wooden and steel Bob, and a compound pendulum. • There should be a provision for at least three length and weight adjustments. 2. Filar Pendulum <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bifilar suspended gravity pendulums with additional masses. 3. Free Vibration of Mass-Spring System <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The spring-mass system should be capable of performing experiments for the free vibration of single and two degree of freedom system with and without damping. • It should include at least three springs with different stiffness and at least three weights that can be stackable. • Damper kit with three different fluids should be provided for damped vibration experiments. 4. Vibration of beams <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It should demonstrate natural frequencies, mode shapes, and damping in beams of different materials. • Three beams of different material (one Stainless steel, one Aluminium, and one plastic beam), with three weight blocks should be provided. • Supports should be user configurable with adjustable length for a cantilever and simply supported type. 5. Torsional vibration of rotors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Torsional vibration module should consist of shafts with three different diameters, and rotors with three different mass and inertia. • It should demonstrate one and two degrees of freedom systems for free and forced vibration. • It should be configured with different rod length, diameter, and materials to vary system stiffness, with different disks to vary the mass and with or without a dashpot. • Rod for Torsional Vibration must be rust proof.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Torsional Damper with one dashpot and at least three fluids should be provided. 6. Tuned mass damper <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It should be capable of performing experiments for spring-mass absorber system, and beam absorber system with and without damping. 7. Vibration Transmissibility Module <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It should be able to measure vibratory force and motion transmitted to the supporting structure at different frequencies of excitations. • It should include force transducer and signal conditioner, transmissibility software. Additional Requirements:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Data Acquisition and Analysis Instrumentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Data acquisition (DAQ) system has sufficient number of channels. Analysis frequency should be greater than or equal to 4kHz, anti-aliasing filter, AC-DC coupling, data analysis software with setup for performing each experiment, simulation software, motor control module, multi-featured display, and mounting Hardware/Tooling. Connecting cables must be robust. 2. Vibration Simulation / Animation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provision should be there so that virtual experiments on various topics by changing the parameters of a vibratory system and can see how the system behaviour is affected. Related Software should include Time waveform analysis, spectrum analysis, FRF, motor motion control. 3. Excitation Motor <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The motor should provide variable speed and should have built- in unbalance load. Motor should be controlled by software. Min speed of eccentric motor should be 1 Hz & Max. Speed should be 70 Hz having a step of 0.5 Hz or better. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. The frame should be adjustable to enable levelling. 5. Hardware and Software synchronization should be essential part of the system. 6. The entire system should operate with 50Hz 230V electrical supply. 7. The system should accompany a comprehensive user guide. 8. Demonstration of all the experiments as in the specifications will be seen online video conferencing mode before dispatch of the equipment.
2	Training	Training of 3 or more working days to our analysts by the application specialist at our lab after successful commissioning of the instrument by the service engineer is to be provided.

3	Warranty	Standard warranty 1-year should be offered with main system. If within a period of one year after commission, any accessory / consumable/ spare part is proved to be defective then such product shall be replaced by the manufacturer / supplier. Such replacement shall be sole obligation of manufacturer / supplier, Including payment of charges for freight delivery, custom duty and transportation, if any. In case of breakdown during the warranty period, a competent Service Engineering of the supplier should make as many visits as are required to rectify the problem and replace the faulty parts, without any liability of cost.
